M. B.—There will be an annual meeting of Delta Lodge, No. 568, F. and A. M., this Thursday evening, Dec. 19. A. L.
5672, for the election of officers for the ensuing masonic year.

JAMES A. PHILLIS, Sec.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—Brief funeral services will be held at the residence of the late Mr. J. S. Davis, corner of Fifteenth and Cedar streets, at 1:15 p.m. this (Thursday.) Friends of the family are invited. Funeral sermon Sabbath morning in the Presbyterian church.

A FINE lot of box stoves for churches and school-houses, cheap at Halley's.
12-19-1m

—Go to the Athenaeum to-night.
—The weather moistened considerably yesterday afternoon.

—The remains of the late Mr. J. S.
Davis will be conveyed to Evansville for burial. The friends will start with the body on the Illinois Central, at 2:40 p. m., to-day.

—Wm. P. Perkins, of the Perkins House, Vienna, was one of the excursionists to Cairo on Monday last. Mr. Perkins keeps the best hotel in Vienna, and Cairoites who visit the town should make it a point to go there.

—The funeral services of the late Mr.
J. S. Davis will be preached in the Presbyterian church on next Sunday morning by the Rev. Mr. Thayer.

—The cold, damp weather now prevailing is very unfavorable for horses. Those afflicted with the epizootic become worse, and those which have not succumbed to the disease, become more liable to do so.

—The bill to-night at the Athenaeum is excellent. Go.

—Frank Chapman, of Carbondale came down on the Illinois Central yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Selden Irwin are at the St. Charles hotel.

—John Green, the thief brought from St. Louis some days ago, is expecting friends from St. Louis, who, he says, will bail him out of jail.

—Mr. Mayer, the gentlemanly agent of the Selden Irwin troupe, came here meeting with a serious accident yesterday morning. As he was walking down Sixth street, the sidewalk being covered with ice, he slipped and fell. The shock was so severe that for a short time he thought of sending for Dr. Dunning to look for broken bones. He soon recovered, however, and felt no serious effects of the fall.

—Mr. Allen has bought out the Southern hotel and is now acting as landlord of that institution.

—Mr. Fay, former proprietor of the Southern hotel, has bought the hotel department of the Delmonico from Jack Winter.

—A young white girl, aged about sixteen years, died on Tuesday of small-pox, in the pest-house.

—The trees were hung with crystal yesterday morning.

—As Christmas draws near, the merchants are kept busy.

—Our people have no cause to complain of a lack of amusements. The theatre, the church festivals, banquets, balls, social card parties, crowd each other.

—The absence of Judge Bross at the railroad convention in Paris, Tennessee, necessitates the adjournment of the county court. It will meet again on Friday morning.

—J. H. Lufkins formerly of Anna, has established himself in a first-class grocery store on Commercial avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets.
Everything desirable in the way of eat-ables can be had of Mr. Lufkins at the very lowest prices.

—The slippery sidewalks yesterday afforded the school boys amusement in the way of skating.

—The rain of night before last, though not a very heavy one, replenished the cisterns somewhat, for which the good people of this city, thankful for small favors and large ones in proportion, are grateful.

—The Selden Irwin troupe made their third appearance before the public at the Athenaeum last night. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather and muddy condition of the street-crossings, they had a fair house. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin were well sustained, and if our theatre-going class of citizens will only liberally patronize this troupe, it will stimulate Mr. Irwin, the proprietor, to renewed exertions to make his entertainment popular and attractive.

—Ladies will find at Burger's, 144 Commercial avenue, fancy goods of all kinds, selected with special reference to the holiday season; men and boys will find all kinds of boots and shoes, and ladies' and misses' shoes that will give perfect satisfaction. Mr. Burger has also dress goods, shawls, skirts, furs of all kinds—such as minks, sables, etc.; all new, just received from the East, and now being sold at very low prices—at figures reduced to meet the demands of the holiday trade, so that the nimble penny may be turned instead of the slow dollar. Call and see for yourself.

—Sewing machine findings of every kind, such as needles, oil, springs, shuttles, bobbins, castors, tuck-markers, corders, hemmers, oil cans, screw drivers, wrenches and all difficult parts of the machine that wear out. Also self-acting rufflers, the best in use. All kinds of machines repaired. Persons at a distance can adjust the machine from the stand, pack it in a box or basket and send by express. All work warranted.

J. C. CARSON,

156 Commercial avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets.

—The Irish Cousin will be reproduced by the Selden Irwin troupe on Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, for the accommodation of the ladies and children. Saturday a day of recreation and fun for school children, consequently Mr. Irwin will sell this matinee and put the price of mission down so low that every school boy and girl can afford to attend.

—F. W. Bedard, formerly a "Carotte," now of the steamer Utah, was in this city yesterday.

—To-night the Selden Irwin troupe will give their fourth entertainment at the Athenaeum, on which occasion will be presented the romantic drama of the Marble Heart, with the full strength of the company. Mr. Harry Rainforth will appear this evening in his great characters of Diogenes and Volage. Everybody should go. The institution is destined to become popular in this city, and is one worthy of encouragement and support.

—Toys, notions and fancy goods. The best and cheapest place to get your toys and fancy goods, is on Commercial avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets—No. 156, as we keep toys the year round and sell at regular prices. We are just in receipt of a new and fresh lot of goods, among which is a fine assortment of Christmas tree ornaments, which we sell to churches and other institutions at cost prices.

LITTLE'S LIVING AGE FOR 1873.—This well known magazine presents in an inexpensive form, considering its three and a quarter thousand large pages of reading matter a year, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the ablest essays and reviews, the best serial and short stories, the finest sketches and poems, and the most valuable, biographical, historical, political and scientific information from the entire body of foreign periodical literature.

Among the distinguished authors lately represented in its pages are Matthew Arnold, Chas. Kingsley, George MacDonald, Miss Thackeray, Max Muller, Karl Blind, Prof.
Tyndall, Sir Robert Lytton, Prof. Huxley, James Anthony Froude, Jean Ingelow, The Duke of Argyll, Prime Minister Gladstone, Miss Mulock, Eckmann-Chatrion, Arthur Helps, Fritz Reuter, Julia Kavanagh, Tennyson, Browning, etc., etc.

Besides continuing the production of the leading British authors during the coming year as usual, it is to begin about January 1, the publication, serially, of one of the finest productions, translated expressly for it, of the Platte-Deutsch novel and humorist Fritz Reuter, who is pronounced the most "popular German author of the last half century" and whose writings, in the language of Bayard Taylor, "are the wonder and delight of Germany." A charming Christmas story by the same author is promised about Christmas time, and the number containing it will be sent free to new subscribers beginning with the new volume, January 1.

The subscription price is $4 a year, which is cheap for the amount of reading furnished; or for those desiring the cream of both home and foreign literature, the publishers, (Little & Gay, Boston) make a still cheaper offer, viz: to send for $10 any one of the American $4 monthlies or weeklies with the Living Age for a year.

CONDITION OF THE RIVERS.

The rise in the river at this place is steadily increasing. There is now five feet reported over the same bars between here and Evansville. The Mississippi was full of heavy white ice yesterday.
There is nothing new to report from that stream, and 3 feet is probably all the water there is in the channel. There is about 5 feet reported at Point Pleasant.

Special dispatches to THE BULLETIN report the condition of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers at various places.

BUSINESS AND WEATHER.

Considerable business was transacted on the landings, which were in a terrible muddy and slushy condition. The weather moderated a little and the ice on the sidewalks nearly all melted, making it very disagreeable walking.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The City of Quincy cleared for the South after taking on a couple of hundred tons. She intends filling out at Belmont.

The Mary Davage and barges brought about 200 tons for reshipment. She was detained some time between here and Evansville by the low stage of water. She is enroute to St. Louis, and will have to remain here until navigation to that place begins again.

The City of Chester left for Memphis with a very good trip of freight and people.

The Quickstep has resumed her place in the Evansville trade. She arrived bringing a medium load, and reported five feet over the worst bars.

The Susie Silver came in early from New Orleans, bringing about eight hundred tons of sugar and molasses, mostly consigned to St. Louis.

The Belle of Pike came to the wharf, and is loading for Memphis, and will leave this evening. John Langlois is the second clerk.

The Forsyth left last evening for the sunny South with all she wanted, and under command of Capt. John Greenough.

The Mississippi V. T. Co. have another tow of three barges nearly loaded, and will send them forward by the Crescent City.

Jim McFadden, recently 2nd clerk in the Anchor line, has accepted a position on the I. C. R. R. wharf-boat.
